Left for America aged about 10 circa 1849 shortly after the 1847 famine probably in family group sailing from Dublin. James initially joined Co. M. of the Cal. Regt. aged 22. This unit later transposed into the 71st Pa Inf. He was wounded at Sharpesville/Antietam 17th Sept. 1862. He was wounded at the battle of Antietam recovered and then fought at the battle of Gettysburg where he was taken prisoner at the famous "Angle" 3rd July 1863. He was then held as prisoner in Belle Isle prison at Richmond Va. until sent to hospital then to Camp Parole Md. Until he returned to the 71st in June 1874. On 30th June 1864 he was assigned to Co. E. of the 69th. He remained in the 69th for a short period of about three months as an orderly nurse after his enlistment with the 71st ended. Was honourably discharged Oct 26th 1864 at end of his enlistment. Became a naturalised American citizen in Nov 8th 1864. He became a police officer in Baltimore and probably retired from that force. There is some indication that he may have worked for the Baltimore and Ohio rail Co. at a time. On Sept 25th 1900 some 36 years after leaving the army he was admitted to the Southern Branch of the National Home for Disabled soldiers at Hampton/Elizabeth City Va. He was discharged from the home March 19th 1921 and went back to Baltimore. Died at home 27th March 1914 and was buried in Louden Park National Cemetery New Section grave 481. After the war he had married in 1867 and settled in Baltimore Md. (Photo marker)

* * Mahoney Daniel (Co. CORK) Enlisted aged 40 as a private Aug 19th 1861 3 Yrs Born Co. Cork Ireland; Had very mixed career. One researcher states that he went missing during the battle at Glendale or just prior . He was said to have been taken prisoner by the Confederates in July 1st 1862 near White Oak Swamp in the retreat from Savage Station to Glendale, The report card for July-August of that year states he was a prisoner in Richmond Va. Was then said to have been paroled by the Confederates August 8th 1862. Then reported "sick in hospital in Georgetown from Aug 30th to Dec 31 1862. He was then reported as a deserted April 29th 1863 suggesting he had returned to the ranks for at least a while. However it looks like he never fought at Gettysburg as stated by a sergeants report which also stated he had never taken part in any engagement since enlistment. Reports during the Gettysburg period of the war states he was transferred to the Invalid Corps in Dec 1863.. Sent to work in the Draft rendezvous office in New Haven Conn. He was then for a period employed as a hospital aide at David's Island Hospital NYC until June 1864 then back to the Invalid Corps . He was finally discharged Aug 31st 1866 and was by that date back in Philadelphia. He filed for a pension on June 8th 1866. This was refused as the pension office could not find any proof of his being either Glendale or Gettysburg. A small man 5ft 4ins. Tall with blue eyes. Daniel died July 1st 1866 and as far as is known buried in an unmarked grave in the Old Cathedral cemetery Philadelphia. This guy would appear to have been the man "who never was" in he 69th!!.

McManus Andrew Capt Aug. 19th 1861 3 Yrs Born Ireland: Involved in the initial army regiment development. Had a long standing dispute with a Capt. McMahan of the 71st Regt P.V. and was murdered by McMahan near Falmouth Va. May 27th 1863. He was aged 36. Enlisted 19th. Aug. 1861: Buried Cathedral cemetery Philadelphia initially but later along with family re-interred in the Holy Sepulchre cemetery at Cheltenham Philadelphia with other family members on 16. 7. 1942 Plot 16.3.76.. Re-interrment documents suggest he was 29 when killed. Death notices in the local Philadelphia newspapers do not mention his murder but that he had been fighting the rebels. In The Press Philadelphia June 2nd 1863 described the circumstances of McMahan's death. Apparently McManus called McMahon (a native of San Francisco) a coward and the latter McMahon got to hear of this. He went to McManus tent and asked him if it were true and on being told it was promptly shot McManus. McManus embalmed body was sent back from the Potomac Army H.Q. on 31st May 1863 to Philadelphia. @ M.
