Angelo Costantini Angelo. Born Venice Italy 1844. Enlisted Aug. 19th 1861 3 Yrs. Prom. Sergt Major from Private Co. H Nov. 18th 1864. Mustered out with Regt. July 1st 1865. Died March 21st 1876 aged 32. Initially buried in the Monument Cemetery Philadelphia. When this cemetery was closed Angelo's remains were re-interred in the Laurel Hill Cemetery Philadelphia Section 18- Lot 150. (Marker image). His wife Ella B Angelo later filed for a widows pension. He had initially enlisted in Co H and re-enlisted and promoted on Nov 18th 1864 to R.S.M. rank. Discharged July 1st 1865. He was married to Ella Blanche Gardener the daughter of Dr. William Gardener and wife Amanda Eliza Gardener. He would appear to have had good relationships with the Gardeners as in his will he left William Gardener his father in law his gold watch and seal skin cape. He left his brother in law Edmund Watson Gardener his coral scarf pin, He left all his personal effects to his mother in law with the exception of his jewellery. He left everything else he possessed to his wife. He made and signed his will in Philadelphia 15th Dec. 1875. He signed it with a clear hand Antonio Costantini Angelo. Witnesses George M. Shepherd 27 Walnut St. and by S. M. Moore 334 Franklin St. Philadelphia.

Bombaugh. Dr. Charles Carroll Surgeon Aug. 19th 1861 3 Yrs. Son of Aaron Bombaugh and either his first wife Julia Duncan or 2nd wife Mira Lloyd. Charles was born in Harrisburg Pa. 10th Feb . 1828. The Bombaughs were descended from German stock as the name suggests and family settling in the Harrisburg area of Dauphine Co. Pa. Charles was well educated . Aged 17 in 1845 he joined for initial additional education and military training at Capt Alden Partridges Military College in Harrisburg. This college active in Harrisburg 1845-48. Then he attended Harvard University and was in the B.A. Class of Harvard 1850 and graduated from there with honours He then studied medicine and graduated from Jefferson Medical College Philadelphia 1853. He joined the 69th as Surgeon in 1861 but resigned 27th Sept 1862 due to poor health. A man of many talents. The family appeared to move to Baltimore Md as they noted there in the 1880 Federal Census. He was editor of "The Baltimore Underwriter" for 33 years, Medical examiner for life insurance companies, Vice President American Academy of Science 1882-1894. Author of several books including "Gleanings for the Curious", "The Book of Blunders", "First Things", "Literature of Kissing", "Stratagems and Conspiracies to Defraud Insurance Companies". Charles died aged 78 on 24th May 1906 in Baltimore Md. Lived at a time at 836 Park Ave Baltimore. There is a signed painting of Charles by

Louis P Dietrich dated 1895 owned by the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore Md. Charles is buried in the Harrisburg Cemetery Harrisburg Dauphine Co. Pa. Charles was married to Mary Elizabeth Heisely. She died March 18th 1917 and also buried in the same cemetery. It is of interest to note that Maria Elizabeth Heisely Charles Bombaugh's wife was the daughter of a Georg Jacob Heisely and Anna Maria Kurtz. The Heisely family were renown for their ability to manufacture clocks and mathematical instruments.(Marker image)
